

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, Aug. 25

2000

Marshall Center welcomes Colombian War College group

A group from the Colombian Armed Forces War College is visiting Marshall Friday. The group will receive the Center and Space Shuttle overviews, and tour the East/West Test Area, the Space Station Mockup and the Space Station Manufacturing Facility.

Women's Equality Day program
10 a.m. Monday,
Sparkman Center auditorium

Proposal Lessons Learned, 8 a.m.-noon, Sept. 6.
Register via AdminSTAR

History chat Friday features Bob Schwinghamer

Marshall retiree Bob Schwinghamer will speak at an informal history chat at 11 a.m. Friday in the Marshall Heritage Gallery in Bldg. 4203. Schwinghamer retired as associate director for technology at the Marshall Center.

ISO 9000 audit next week to focus on seven elements

National Quality Assurance will conduct a two-day surveillance audit at Marshall Wednesday and Thursday. The auditors will validate the continued registration to the present scope of Marshall's flight-related activities. The audit focuses on seven ISO elements:

1 - Management; 2 - Quality System; 4- Design Control; 8 - Product Identification and Traceability; 9 - Process Control; 14 - Corrective and Preventive Action; 17 - Internal Quality Audits; and 20 - Statistical Techniques.

Safety Bowl kicks off 10 a.m. Wed., Morris Auditorium.
Other matchups 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.